

We are excited to invite you to visit historic Cambridge, Massachusetts June 28 - 30, 2006 to join your colleagues in public policy dispute resolution.

Keynote Addresses and Workshop Sessions on Four Themes

- ◆ Deliberative Democracy
- ◆ Values-Based Disputes
- ◆ Cross-Cultural Dispute Resolution
- ◆ The Business of Public Policy Dispute Resolution

Cambridge, Massachusetts

The MIT campus faces Boston just a stone's throw across the Charles River. In June, the river will be filled with sailboats and rowing shells, while the city teems with tourists visiting historic sites such as Old North Church, the USS Constitution, and Mother Goose's final resting place. Cambridge, home of both MIT and Harvard, is dotted with quaint restaurants, old churches, and a decidedly eclectic mix of academics, young professionals, and old New England gentry. Come a day early or stay a day late to experience these two fascinating cities.
